

TUBERCULOSIS FROM THE PATIENT PERSPECTIVE

WD4093

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION: The goal of this course is to highlight and discuss the social impact treatment for tuberculosis (TB) infection or disease may have on the individual patient.

OBJECTIVES:

At the conclusion of the session, the participant will be able to:

1. Identify two potential barriers that can hinder successful treatment completion resulting from stigmatizing language.
2. Describe strategies to respond to social isolation.
3. List misconceptions that can cause a delay in seeking treatment.
