

Medical Consultant, Heartland National TB Center (HNTC), San Antonio, Texas

Responsibilities: perform duties as directed by the HNTC Medical Director and as required by CDC guidelines; assist Center in coordinating and establishing a clear definition of needs, plans and goals; handle administrative duties and committee functions as assigned; provide appropriate and timely consultative care via telephone and e-mail requests for consultation on tuberculosis patients throughout the HNTC 13-state region; provide education and training to fellows, students and staff; participate and/or assist in research projects; provide oversight of the development of and input into HNTC educational opportunities and enduring educational product development; write and/or assist in writing and reviewing grants, proposals, etc.; participate as a speaker at Center events and represents the Center when conducting presentations at local, regional and national events. Qualifications: Doctor of Medicine degree required; Licensed to practice in the US required. Experience diagnosing and treating tuberculosis preferred.

EEO/AA Employer M/V/F/D... This position is security sensitive which authorizes the employer to obtain criminal history record information.

Competitive Salary + excellent benefits. To apply, please submit resume/CV to Stephanie Ott, Executive Director via e-mail at Stephanie.Ott@uthct.edu.

For more information on the HNTC project, call 1-800-TEX-LUNG or visit our website www.HeartlandNTBC.org.