Most, if not all, patients with TB are Treatable and Curable.

Pondering thought?

When you like a flower, you pluck it. But when you love a flower, you water it daily!!!!

Our TB patients are like flowers and our words in encouraging them to successfully be cured is the water for that flower/our patient. WE ARE THE GARDENERS – you and me.

Gautama Buddha stated:

To utter pleasant words without practicing them, is like a fine flower without fragrance.

Let us all put into practice the following:

SPEAK AND BELIEVE

- To be understood means you are making your point so others will see your point of view.
- To understand means you are using your listening skills and communicating with compassion and empathy.
 - Nonjudgemental phrases
 - Positive Non-verbal communication

YOUR WORD IS YOUR WAND

Use Empowering phrases when speaking with a person with TB. For example:

- “living with”
- “recovering from”
- “overcoming”
- “resiliently recuperated”

Life is against me.	As the eldest you are to be the example.	If you do not believe you will not be saved.	You are a woman, and you have your place	I hate myself
Nothing ever goes right	You are the black sheep of the family.	You have not been a good servant to God and you will be punished.	You are a man, and you have your place	I am worthless
Everybody hates me.	No one in this family believes you.	You have gone against God and you will be punished	You are a child and you have your place.	I deserve to be alone and abandoned.
